

Collaborative Strategies for Safety-driven Procurement in Power & Utilities

Featuring Ian Madison, M.S., CSP, PG,
Senior Manager, Safety – Power Generation at Entergy

1. When safety considerations significantly influence procurement decisions

2. How to bridge the gap between procurement and safety

3. How safety-driven procurement initiatives enhance worker safety AND overall operational efficiency

4. Balancing safety standards with procurement goals

5. Proven Safety Metrics

7. How to foster open lines of communication between departments to ensure cohesive safety-driven procurement

8. US energy sector trend predictions

9. How to ensure consistent safety protocols with dispersed workers, infrastructure and facilities

10. The safety management approach difference: high-risk vs. routine operations

11. Risk mitigation strategies and how to communicate them to workers

12. Training and Competence Best Practices

13. Adaptable safety management system

14. Strategies to streamline and enhance the supplier qualification process with dispersed workers

Q & A

entergy

Avetta